GOLF CRUISE – CHALLENGES IN THE MEDITERRANEAN

Thu 2 Jun Bonifacio – Golf de Sperone

This dream course lies directly on the rugged southern coastline of Corsica. Many of the holes on the course are set against a backdrop of unique views of the azure sea. On five of the 18 holes, you even play at the edge of or almost into the Mediterranean. Some very undulating fairways between the tee and green await players.

Sat 4 Jun Barcelona – Club de Golf de Barcelona

Despite its broad fairways and straightforward roughs, this 18-hole course is classed as physically demanding. However, if you can limit the length of your game, you will return to the ship with a successful score.

Mon 6 Jun Marseille – Golf de Fregate (Additional course 1)

Situated on a plateau, this course is known for its old trees and enclosed fairways. Due to the layout of the course, the walking route requires a good level of fitness. It is also advisable to pack a few extra balls in your golf bag – if you miss the fairway, you have little chance of finding your ball again.

Tue 7 Jun St. Tropez – Roquebrune GC

Roquebrune golf course Resort is situated in an ideal spot between Cannes and Saint Tropez. Peacefully nestled in completely natural surroundings, this course allows you to mix the passion for the game with a relaxing walk.

Wed 8 Jun Antibes – Saint Donat GC (Additional course 2)

Just twenty minutes from Cannes & the famous hotels of the Croisette, the Golf Saint Donat is situated at the entrance of Grasse, perfume capital of the world and spreads over 95 acres. A picturesque site filled with historical importance & covered in sunshine nearly all year round. Saint Donat is without doubt one of the best courses on the French Riviera.
